Fairview buys 8 acres

Fairview New Homes has acquired two development sites, both without planning permission.

The 3.5-acre John North Hall Campus site in High Wycombe, Buckinghamshire, was sold to Fairview by Buckinghamshire and Chilterns University College. Fairview plans to redevelop the former student and staff accommodation block as a mix of private and affordable housing, at an estimated cost of £23m.

Fairview has also bought the 4.5-acre former Drapers Transport Yard in Thurrock, Essex. The scheme is expected to be completed by 2014, at an overall development cost of £30.5m.
